2022 Puglia Vintage note

From Puglia to Sicily, Southern Italy (and their varieties) are more used to the heat, and in 2022 they basked in the Jun and July sun. (Dry spring, hot summer). However, some heavy rain events in August revived many vines, and led to average yields with good quality fruit.

Winemaking: Handpicked, certified organic, suitable for vegans. Lees contact but no barrel aging.

Tasting notes: Ruby red with violet reflections. Intense, vinous, fruity bouquet. Notes of red fruit and blackberry. On the palate it is velvety and persistent. Perfect with red and white meats: roasted and grilled.
Puglia IGT.
