2022 Late Picked Semillon

Region

Hunter Valley

- Fresh, modern styles of Hunter Valley classics. State-of-the-art winemaking combined with top quality fruit make this quintessential range of wines ready to enjoy right now.

The Story

— This luscious style of dessert wine has always been a family favourite. It signifies the end to a family feast where good laughs and good times have been shared around the table.

The Wine

— A late picked dessert style wine, strong lemon and lime characters as well as tropical fruit. The palate has rich apricot and peach, with a broad silky mouthfeel and a soft acid finish.

The Vintage

— Excellent growing conditions in 2022 led to good yield and luscious fruit characteristics in this wine.

The Potential

— Late Picked Semillon never lasts long in the De Iuliis household, especially after a long Sunday lunch with our family.

The Match

— Late Picked Semillon goes exceptionally well as a digestif or served alongside desserts. Lemon meringue pie is a delicious match!
