

It's all about delicious wine with attitude.

Wine industry friends with a shared passion for music, Alex Byrne and Kim Farrell started Liquid Rock'n'Roll in 2013 to experiment with imaginative wines and funky packaging. Alex is a Top 50 Young Gun of Wine with experience in Burgundy, Northern Rhône as well as Geelong and Margaret River here in Australia; and Kim has worked with names such as Brown Brothers and Provenance Wines and also runs his own wine equipment business. The label's philosophy is all about "delicious wines with attitude."

Liquid Rock 'n' Roll Ghetto Dolcetto

This wine is made from Dolcetto from a vineyard in Swan Hill region, Victoria. It is a bright, young-drinking red wine with an intense and vibrant colour, nose of fruit and spice and a lively palate with enough tannin to give it complexity and structure. Serve slightly chilled for optimum enjoyment.
